By submitting this application, you are acknowledging and committing to the following statements:

- (1) You are an individual member of ADC or an official representative of a member organization in good standing with ADC and have no conflicts of interest that would inhibit your role as a board member;
- (2) You are willing to participate in the ADC established nomination process, which will include an interview and submission of your name to the membership for consideration if you are nominated;
- (3) If nominated and elected, you are willing to serve a three-year term beginning in March 2023; and
- (4) You are able to travel without ADC reimbursement and participate in approximately (3) three in-person board meetings per year – two at ADC regularly scheduled events (Summit/IFF) and one additional Washington, DC meeting, plus at least one virtual committee meeting per month.
