- Harness the impact of essential DOD programs
- Optimize investments in defense infrastructure
- Modernize our approach to quality-of-life
- Enhance partnerships

By focusing on these four key issues, ADC's HOME Initiative is ensuring that our defense communities are prepared for evolving national security threats.

HARNESS THE IMPACT OF ESSENTIAL DOD PROGRAMS

Ensure sustained funding for legacy programs like OLDCC, REPI, and others that support and sustain critical components of military-community collaboration.

OPTIMIZE INVESTMENTS IN DEFENSE INFRASTRUCTURE

Expand and adapt DCIP to address evolving defense community needs, targeting $150 million annually to reduce the significant backlog of projects.

MODERNIZE OUR APPROACH TO QUALITY-OF-LIFE

Invest in community-level programs that address key challenges for military families, including education, childcare, workforce development, and recruitment, through a program modeled after the Defense Community Support Initiative.

ENHANCE PARTNERSHIPS

Build upon the successes achieved through the military services installation-community partnership programs to strengthen mission readiness, expand capabilities, improve efficiency and create cost savings for the military.
